

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN
NORTHERN DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

Case No: 08-CR-20241-1

CLARENCE MOORE,

Defendant.

ORDER DENYING WITHOUT PREJUDICE DEFENDANT'S MOTION FOR BILL OF PARTICULARS AND BRADY MATERIALS

Defendant Clarence Moore has filed the above-captioned motions<sup>1</sup> but has failed to indicate whether or not the contemplated relief would be agreed to by the Government.

Eastern District of Michigan Local Rule 7.1(a) states as follows:

(1) The movant must ascertain whether the contemplated motion will be opposed. If the movant obtains concurrence, the parties may make the subject matter of the contemplated motion a matter of record by stipulated order.

(2) If concurrence is not obtained, the motion must state:

(A) there was a conference between the attorneys or unrepresented parties in which the movant explained the nature of the motion and its legal basis and requested but did not obtain concurrence in the relief sought; or

(B) despite reasonable efforts specified in the motion, the movant was unable to conduct a conference.

explained or, in the alternative, what unsuccessful efforts were made to engage in such a conference.

No exception is made for criminal cases. If the Government were to agree, these motions would be mooted. The court discourages motion practice that may be unnecessary and wasteful of court and attorney time. Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED that the Defendant's "Motion for Bill of Particulars" [Dkt. # 41] and "Motion for Disclosure of Brady Materials"<sup>2</sup> [Dkt. # 41-2] are DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE.

<sup>2</sup>The court notes that, according to Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963), the Government has a Constitutional on-going responsibility to disclose any evidence that may be favorable to the defense. Because that responsibility does not require or depend upon a motion or a court order, the court is inclined to find that this type of motion is unnecessary.
